CITY OF INGLEWOOD Parks, Recreation and Community Services Department EXCITING VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY!

- o Do you enjoy the outdoors and love the feeling of accomplishment?
- o Do you enjoy meeting new people and having fun as you see a project through to completion?
- If this sounds like you, then please come join us and our partners for a KABOOM! Community
 Playground Build.

Join us as we team up to build a KaBOOM! playground at Queen Park, 652 E. Queen St. We are seeking 200+ volunteers who do not have to be skilled, trained or have any special tools; they just have to be enthusiastic, energetic, a team player, willing to work, and have fun, fun, fun! (And be at least 18 years of age). Volunteers will assist with tasks ranging from registration to assembling and installing the equipment.

- Mark your calendar for Friday, March 11, 2011, 9:00 a.m. 4:00 p.m. and be a part of this exciting endeavor. This playground build will take place Rain or Shine. Arrive at 9 a.m. for breakfast and stay until project completion time at 3:30 p.m. We'll provide lunch, beverages, music and prizes, along with an opening and special closing ceremony at 3:30 p.m.
- We are also seeking 30 Build Captains to provide leadership on the 9th. If you do happen to have some skills, or just a whole lot of interest, we invite you to become a Build Captain to take on a leadership role on the 11th. Captains are asked to attend a 45-minute orientation on Site Prep Day, Wednesday, March 9th. (We'll also be preparing the playground site on the 10th, so Captains or other volunteers who want to help on Site Prep Day are more than welcome to join us).

To volunteer, complete and return the Playground Project Volunteer Registration Form below via fax at (310) 330-5750, email kaboom@cityofinglewood.org or postal mail: Parks, Recreation and Community Services, One Manchester Blvd., Inglewood, CA 90301.
